

A Wirthmor-Waist Makes a Suitable, Useful and Very Appropriate Christmas Gift

As Always Just $1.00 and Worth More

No woman has too many Waists—and a new one or two would always be welcome and greatly appreciated. In themselves, these Wirthmor Waists would make a most desirable Christmas gift, but packed as they are, in attractive Holiday envelopes, with a Christmas greeting, they are particularly appropriate. The styles are new and pretty and the Waists are made just as good Waists should be made—that is, so as to afford the wearer lasting pleasure and satisfaction.

By United Press.
Christiana, Dec. 21.—Henry Ford is confined by possibly serious illness. His party will remain here until he is fully recovered. Public opinion in Norway has veered in Ford's favor. Newspapers describe him as a man of admirable personality, but continue to "kid" the delegates. The Aftenpost accuses Madame Schwimmer, Hungarian delegate of cabling from New York imaginary peace committees in Europe to fool Ford. Belligerent nations are sending spies to Christiania to ascertain whether any ulterior motive prompted the peace cruise.

SECOND CONTEST OF HIGH SCHOOL SOCIETIES

Monday evening the Senate and Periclean literary societies of the High school held the second of their five annual contests to determine the holder of the cup for the coming year. This contest was in reading and was won by the Senate, this being the second victory for this society for the present year. The contest was very close, the Senate winning by a vote of three to two. Last year the Periclean won the first two contests and the Senate the next three.

In the contest of Monday evening the Senate was represented by Pearl Peay, Ruby West and Inez Norris. The Periclean by Lenna Hardin, Hazel West and Pearl Turley.

The next contest will be a debate, probably on some phase of Wilson's preparedness program.

The conviction of Creekmore and his associates at Oklahoma City shows that sometimes even the "man higher up" gets what is coming to him. It begins to look like the officers are in a fair way to at least seriously cripple the bootlegging business which has flourished under men of the Creekmore type.

The magnitude of the undertaking to bring peace among the warring nations of Europe does not seem to have dawned on the optimists of the Ford party until they reached Europe. Although not yet in a hostile country, their first introduction was enough to convince them that to bring peace would require something more than a mere waving of Mr.

Ford's hand.

At the last session of congress a bill was introduced in the House by Congressman Murray and in the senate by Senator Owen providing for a bridge across the Canadian river near the point of meeting of Hughes, Seminole and Pontotoc counties. In the general rush attending a short session, no action was taken. However, one of the first acts of Mr. Murray on the assembling of the present congress was to again introduce this bill.
No argument is necessary to prove the value of this bridge. It is now up to the Oklahoma-Lincoln Highway association and the three counties affected to get in behind the bill and lend all possible assistance in hastening the passage of the bill. Better strike while the iron is hot.

COUNT TISZA SAYS NO NEED FOR APPREHENSION, IF WASH-INGTON KEEPS COOL.

By United Press

Berlin, Dec. 21.—Count Stephen Tisza, next to Emperor Franz Josef, the strongest man of the dual monarchy, assured the United Press there will be no quarrel between Austria-Hungary and the United States if Washington keeps cool.

"There is no reason for any trouble over the Ancona situation," he said. "It must be settled satisfactorily, not only from the standpoint of the United States but ours. The only way to reach a settlement is through correspondence which will suggest a means. Matters do not depend on us entirely."

The Count says the Emperor rises at four every morning and works until eight at night. He knows every detail of foreign and military affairs and has retained his strength of mind to a remarkable degree.

MOONSHINE STILL CAPTURED

Sallisaw, Okla., Dec. 21.—Sheriff Carl Gay and a posse Monday captured a moonshine still in the hills, four miles north of Vian. The officers arrested William Miller and Zack Gossett on charges of operating the plant. Miller and Gossett are in jail here and federal authorities have been advised of the case.

The still was built out of a sheet iron oil can and had a capacity of eighty gallons. The officers captured 180 gallons of malt that was ready to run through the still and five gallons of moonshine whisky which had been put up in jars, bottles and jugs.

Adives Girls to Wear White Ones.

By United Press.

London, Nov. 20, (By Mail).—"Beware of black stockings; better wear them white," is the candid warning of the Fashion Art League to British women. German dyes are not obtainable and British dye cannot do the work, the league explains. It pertains to several of the colors. They'll run when washed and are harmful to the skin.

DR. WYCHE GREETED BY LARGE AUDIENCE

Monday evening Dr. Richard Thomas Wyche, the noted teller of stories, was greeted by a large audience at the normal chapel. His line is much out of the usual line, consisting of an introductory talk on the art of telling stories and its value as a means of imparting instruction.
He then illustrated his point by telling a number of stories of a nature to interest both young and old. Naturally in a talk of this kind he made no attempt at oratory, for oratory is not a part of relating stories, but he made his point clear and entertained his audience well. The lecture was of especial value to teachers and normal students who anticipate teaching later.

This morning he entertained the normal students at the chapel hour, and this afternoon was at the High school.

fate of Arthur Hemstock, master barber here. After shaving a conval-violently ill. "Gas infection, second

CREEKMORE CONVICTED

ALLEGED KING BEE OF BOOT-LEGGERS, WITH FOUR OTH-ERS GET THE LIMIT

Oklahoma City, Dec. 21.—William J. Creekmore of Joplin, Mo., "king of the bootleggers," whose alleged extensive wholesale liquor law violations have baffled the Oklahoma authorities for years, was convicted of conspiracy to violate the state's prohibitory law in the county court Monday evening. With him were convicted Henry Tiedeman and M. A. Cahn, both of Oklahoma, alleged employees and associates of the man that is said to have made himself almost a millionaire by defying the law of the land.

The jury imposed the extreme penalty of the law in the case of each of the convicted conspirators—a year in the county jail and a fine of $500.
All three will appeal.

The three were permitted to remain at large under their old bonds, which will hold good until Wednesday. Then new bonds for appeal, fixed by the court, must be provided.

Creekmore, whom Prosecutor Embury characterized as the "king of Oklahoma bootleggers," was the first of the three defendants to hear his fate.
Creekmore dropped his head. A smile came over the faces of a few spectators, but a disappointed, downcast look was noticeable on the faces of others in the courtroom.

T. E. Brents, the special agent of the United States government, who, perhaps had more to do with the gathering of the evidence used in the trial than any other person, occupied the seat in the court room that he has held since the case was opened ten days ago. When the clerk announced the jury's finding, he did not smile. That is, his lips did not move, but his bright looking face became brighter. It was evident that he was pleased. He did not become the least excited. Days of becoming excited over lawsuit victories for him have long since passed. The Creekmore case is the 734th for which he has assembled the evidence. He has obtained victories in more than 75 per cent of them.

ADA AND FRANCIS CAGE TONIGHT

FRANCIS BEAT ADA TWO WEEKS AGO, BUT RECENT WORK IS EXPECTED TO SHOW

Francis and Ada boys basketball teams meet tonight in the City Hall to determine which has the art of caging a hollow sphere worked to the nearest perfection. Two weeks ago at Francis, Francis walked away with the game by a big margin, but the Ada lads believe that the two weeks of hard work under Coach Wolfe has put them in the right mettle to stem the fast shots of the boys from the Frisco town.

Francis has won three games and lost one this season. Ada has played two and lost both of them. Ada rooters are expecting to see the local laddies get into a winning stride tonight and finish the season in great shape.

REVOLUTION IN CHINA PLANNED

San Francisco, Dec. 21.—Tong King Chong, president of the Chinese Republic association, received a cable from Shanghai, China, Monday which stated that five Chinese provinces had declared their independence against the rule of Yuan Shi Kai.

The provinces concerned in the resolution were, according to the cablegram: Kwangtung, Kiangsi, Yuannan, Szechuen and Kweichau.

Mr. Tong who has presided recently at several mass meetings of the Chinese from all parts of the state said Monday night he believed the action of the five provinces would be followed by similar declarations from all parts of China. He said the Chinese in America were strongly opposed to the return of China to the monarchical form of government.

Large sums, he said, had been pledged by California Chinese to finance a general revolution. He said further:

"We are willing to permit Yuan Shi-Kai to reign peacefully. If he does not do this there will be war.
We are fighting for liberty and justice."

No answer has been received, it was announced, to the petition sent December 14 to President Wilson asking that recognition of the new monarchy be withheld by the United States.

CANADIAN BRIDGE BILL

Congressman W. H. Murray has reintroduced the bill for the building of a bridge over the Canadian river on the route of the Oklahoma-Lincoln highway:

A BILL
To construct a bridge across the South Canadian River in Oklahoma.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

That there be, and hereby is, appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $98,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, for the erection of a wagon bridge across the South Canadian river, connecting the counties of Hughes and Pontotoc or Seminole and Pontotoc, at some suitable location along said river as nearly as practical where the Seminole and Creek Nations corner on the north side of said river so as to connect them with the Chickasaw and Choctaw Nations on the south bank thereof, the said bridge and approaches to remain the property of the United States until such time as the restriction period on the individual allotments heretofore made to the Chickasaw, Choctaw, Creek and Seminole Indians shall have expired:

Provided, That when the restriction period shall have expired, that annually thereafter the counties of Hughes, Seminole, and Pontotoc shall pay to the Secretary of the Treasury four per centum per an-

Provided further, That said bridge may be used by the public under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe until the said counties shall have reimbursed the United States in full for said bridge, whereupon the title shall revert to said counties, except that at all times the said bridge shall be subject to the use of the United States, and without charge, in the administration of the affairs of the Chickasaw, Choctaw, Creek and Seminole Tribes of Indians, or for military or other uses of the government of the United States.

CONFERENCE TO WIND UP REVOLUTION

By United Press.
Washington, Dec. 21.—A final conference expected to dispose of the Villa revolution was held today between former Villista generals and Carrancista officials according to American army officers. Villa's wife crossed the border at El Paso yesterday with a large amount of Villa's personal property. Obregon refuses Villa's plea for personal amnesty.

R. R. OFFICIALS HERE TO SEE ABOUT SITE

B. H. Evans, of St. Louis, industrial agent of the Katy, and S. H. Charles of Oklahoma City, division superintendent, were in the city today to confer with Frisco and Santa Fe officials regarding a track to the site of the glass factory just north of the city limits. However, at the hour of going to press they had failed to locate the officials of the other two roads. This matter of a track is about the only obstacle in the way of an early beginning of work on the factory buildings.

THE CITY OF THE MOUNTAIN OF LAUGHTER

(United Press Correspondence)

Oakland, Cal., Dec. 21.—Oakland has adopted the Mountain of Laughter, that storied western peak whose ragged shoulders rise four thousand feet straight into the blue from the flat plain beside this city of three hundred thousand souls. The drives and scenic boulevards which will connect the parks on old Diablo are planned to wind through the Garden of Jungle Gods. The giant frog, the whale, the elephant, the pigeon, the mastodon, and bearded man are but a few of the curious, rocky shapes that speckle the rugged sides of Koo-Wah-Koom. By air line, Mount Diablo is distant from this city about fifteen miles. Since July 1851 Diablo has been a base meridian—the point from which all California land surveys have been measured.

"We need Diablo as a scenic asset," said the citizens of Oakland. Wherefore the Merchants' Exchange—a business men's organization—climbed to the summit of the mountain in a body and adopted it.

"We of Oakland hereby adopt you, sentinel peak, guardian of half our State," said the President and broke a bottle of wine, brewed from grapes grown on Diablo's sides, over the monument that marks the base meridian.

An auto highway with an average grade of five per cent has been completed to the summit. Other boulevards are contemplated and an observatory and hotel will crown the giant pile. Diablo, known to the Indians as Koo-Wah-Koom, the "mountain of laughter," has become the mecca for the motor tourist. From its summit one can look down upon half the State of California. Forty thousand square miles, comprising twenty seven counties are spread out in a vast panorama.

Education Notes.

Special to the News.
Oklahoma City, Dec. 21.—"This week will see the brightest period in the annual run of the life of childhood," said Superintendent R. H. Wilson, "and I believe the schools of the state will do more than they have ever done to make Christmas a schools joy as well as the center of the home's happiness. This may be done in many ways. First, the superintendents, principals, teachers and all in authority must feel keenly the responsibility of working to make a happy school Christmas program. Second, the program must bring parents, friends and all out to the school. Third, the spirit of gift giving combined with the love of the child for curiosity should enter in."

"The last makes the Christmas tree and Santa Claus very popular," continued Mr. Wilson, "and there is no need to bring in at this point that old exploded theory that Santa Claus is a deception and all that stuff. There are millions on earth who know that Santa Claus and the Christmas tree were the most real joys that ever entered their lives and childhood demands parnts and teachers who love and laugh and not theory straddlers and plaster casts. Every county and city superintendent should send word by letter or by telephone that by all means every child in every school must have a Christmas tree."

NO SUNDAY GO TO MEETIN' CLOTHES FOR KIDS ANY MORE

(United Press Correspondence)
Chicago, Dec. 21.—Childhood of today is being buried under the same avalanche of greed for style and clothes that is swamping the grown-up, according to Mrs. Jane Barnard, juvenile probation officer at the court of domestic relations. Mrs. Barnard drew on Tennyson to put it this way:

"Cursed be the social wants that sin against the strength of youth."
"Nowadays," said Mrs. Barnard, "children are dressed for school as they used to dress only for parties. Sunday-go-to-meetin' clothes are unknown. Every day is Sunday in children's clothing. Children are hooted by their playmates if they wear clothing like their parents wore, and one of childhood's greatest tragedies is the contempt their playmates hold for them if they are not dressed in style. It is no better a Sunday school. Children not dressed right up to the minute are not only hooted by their schoolmates, but are received in a patronizing supercilious manner by the adults. This is the reason so many men come to me and say they cannot support their families."

"Do You Need a Job? Ask Uncle Sam," Says Wilson.

In the January Woman's Home Companion Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson says:

"If you want a job, ask Uncle Sam. If you want an employee, ask Uncle Sam. The service is free. Distance is no object. Your postmaster will act as employing agent and the government will do the rest."

"The national employment bureau, operated under the auspices of the Department of Labor, will receive applications for employments from any individual in the United States; it is ready to find help for employers. The object is not only to bring the 'personless' job and the 'jobless' person together, but to put the right person in the right place. It is one of the biggest things the government of the United States has ever undertaken."

"I earnestly commend the facilities of this bureau, not only to any and all employers but to all individuals seeking work. Women can make use of it as freely and readily as men. The success of the entire plan now depends upon the willingness with which the average wage earner seeking a position will make use of the government's aid in getting the job."

"The Department of Agriculture and the Post Office Department are both co-operating with the Department of Labor to make the project a success. Employment blanks have been sent to all postmasters of the country and to every field agent of the Department of Agriculture. These blanks may be had upon request. Employers will state upon them the number and kind of employees they are in need of, and employees will specify, in turn, the kind of work they want. It makes no difference what kind of work it is; it may be housework, stenography, farming, bricklaying, cooking, domestic help. The blanks will, upon their return, be assorted and classified, and then the Department of Labor, through its Division of Information, will make its effort to bring the wage earner and the job together."
